A WATERY TIME OF IT.—It is surprising (says a recent English writer) how infectious tears are at a wedding. First of all the bride cries, because she's going to be married; and then, of course, the bridemaids cry, perhaps because they are not; and the best [illegible] she'll l-l-lose her d-d-darling; and then all the ladies cry, because ladies, as a rule, will never miss a chance of crying; and then, perhaps, the groomsmen cry to keep the ladies company; and then the old pew-opener cries, to show what deep pecuniary interest he takes in the proceedings; and then, perhaps, the public cries, the public being, of course, composed exclusively of petticoats But, notwithstanding all those Niobes, who make quite a Niagara of eye water around him, we own we never yet have seen the bridegroom cry, and should about as soon expect to hear the beadle whimper.

COMPOUND INTEREST.—It is well known to what prodigious sums money improved for a time at compound interest will increase. A penny, so improved from our Saviour's birth as to double itself everey fourteen years, or which is nearly the same, put at five per cent, compound interest at our Saviour's birth, would by the this time have increased to more money than would be contained in one hundred and fifty millions of globes, each equal to the earth in magnitude, and all solid gold. A shilling put out at six per cent, compound interest would in the same time have increased to a greater sum in gold than the whole solar system could hold, supposing a sphere equal in diameter to the diameter of Saturn's orbit. And the earth is to such a sphere as half a square foot, or a quarto page, to the whole surface of the earth.

MONDAY MORNING, JAN. 15, 1866.

Virtue and Vice.

According to any given theory of ethics, these two terms are exact antitheses of one another, but, when different theories are compared together, it will be found that virtue and vice often exchange places and become convertible terms. Thus, while in their cardinal points nearly all religions closely agree, when applied to affairs of real life, one not unfrequently permits and perhaps enjoys practices which another holds in horror and aversion.

The people of the earth, as regards religious belief, may be divided into two classes—Christians and Pagans—those who place their faith in Jesus of Nazareth as the Savior of mankind, and those whom circumstances lead to believe in some other means of salvation. But there is no one feature of difference between the two divisions named more marked than is seen in the social scale assigned to woman by opposing religions. We believe no professedly Christian sect, with one recent exception—Mormonism—has ever sanctioned the practice of polygamy, whereas, among those portions of the human family, who cling to a less noble and elevating faith than that taught by Him of Calvary, the degradation of woman to the level of such sensual indulgence is nearly, or quite, universal.

How, then, stands the record, as between the nations of the earth, where polygamy has prevailed for centuries, and those where its degrading and demoralizing effects have been permitted to appear? By such a comparison alone may we judge with tolerable certainty of the relative results upon society to be obtained from the rival systems. Where, in all the earth, except within the pale of Christendom, does woman, whom Heaven designed as the companion, not the convenience of man, stand forth clothed in all the glory of her womanhood, fulfilling the high destiny for which she was intended? What honor, what privilege, what equality has she elsewhere? None, save as she ministers to the sensual delights of her lord and master. Tell us not that she was destined for no higher sphere—to subserve no worthier purpose. The mothers of that higher type of manhood which is yet to inhabit the earth, will not dwell within the prison walls of a harem. Thus on a scale, grand as the circle of human experience, may be seen the relative virtues of polygamy and its antithesis, and, judged thereby, no candid man will hesitate to declare that its effects on the human family are entirely vicious.

But, its Mormon advocates insist that they are not Arabs nor Mongolians, nor is their religion Moslemism. Very true, but we have yet to learn if there exists any royal road to virtue, which plebians may not travel, or, if any race however exalted by nature, may practice with impunity aught that has proven a curse to others, though perchance inferior. But, it is claimed, that the proportion of the sexes being unequal from wars and other accidents to which men are exposed, many females are driven to seek unhallowed means for the gratification of natural passions, refused to them by the single wife system, in that honorable marriage (?) which polygamy affords. Now, while we believe that among people where polygamy prevails, there follows from natural sources, the disparity claimed in the proportion of the sexes, statistics show that such is not the case under other circumstances, except the result be brought about by some very extraordinary cause. While in large cities the female-element often predominates, the reverse is the case elsewhere, hence, on the whole the proportion remains nearly equal, as demonstrated by the census returns. There might be some force in this argument if polygamy, the assumed cure of the evil, were established in localities where danger to society, according to Mormon theorists, exists in the excess of females. But to advocate its establishment in a Territory where the males must necessarily predominate, shows at once the shallowness of this pretence, and the subterfuge becomes perfectly transparent.

It will be seen in all this, that the danger to society is apprehended by these wise men of Zion, solely from permitting an excess of unwedded females, ascribing to them, by inference, the possession of even grosser desires than belong to men—than which a more gratuitous and ungenerous slander was never uttered against the name of woman. No indeed, not in her more chaste and refined nature should the causes of prostitution be sought, but in the ungoverned appetites and inappeasable lusts of more vicious man. What, then, were the sure condition of society, supposing this theory of polygamy as a social panacea could be carried out? A few having monopolized the gentler sex, what is to be the result of turning so many men loose upon society, without the power of gratifying their natural desires by means of honorable marriage? It seems to us that our Mormon friends have very strangely ignored the possibility of such a contingency and, that their Saintly pilots, in the pretended attempt to steer society clear of the Scylla of immorality would plunge us headlong into a Charybdis ten thousand times worse.

Regarded from any point of view, except through the medium of Mormon passion, polygamy cannot be considered as conducing to the virtue of individuals or of society at large, and hence must be classed among those essentially vicious customs which ever have been and ever must be fraught with lingering evils to society and misery to man. Such is the lesson taught by experience, which it is the part of wisdom to heed, and of justice to enforce.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Washington, Jan 8.

Morrill, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill authorizing the issue of bonds for the funding of the issues of the United States paper. It authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to issue six per cent. coin bonds, indefinite interest, payable in Europe, to be at five per cent; also that the interest bearing notes cease as legal tenders when due.

Williams of Penn., offered a resolution which passed by 94 to 87, declaring as the sense of the House, that the troops should'nt be withdrawn from the late rebel States until the two Houses of Congress shall have ascertained and declared their further presence there no longer necessary.

On motion of Strong, a resolution was adopted, calling on the President for information as to what steps should be taken to restore Mrs. Iturbide's child, taken by Maximilian, under the pretence of making it a prince.

The House went into committee of the whole, when Latham, of California made a speech controverting the doctrine that the late rebel States were out of the Union. Shelberger, of Ohio, made a speech, arguing that the late rebellious States had lost their property as States, by wilful and despotic disregard of the civil and obedience to national authority.

Rice, of Maine, introduced in the House a bill for the disposal of public lands as homesteads in the States of Alabama, Missouri, Louisiana, Arkansas and Florida; referred to Committee on public lands

Raymond introduced a bill to amend several acts relative to naturalization and other purposes; referred to the Judiciary Committee.

On motion of Ancona it was resolved that the committee on Banking and currency be requested to inquire into the expediency of providing by law for the redemption of mutilated, defaced, and worn out fractional currency by the United States Internal Revenue collectors, or other financial agents of the Government in the several collection districts in the country.

Rollins of New Hampshire, offered the following, which was agreed to: "Where as house rents are excessively high and the means of educating colored children limited, therefore, resolved, that the committee on the District of Columbia be instructed to enquire into the expediency of imposing a special tax of twenty per cent on all rents of buildings which exceed 600 dollars per annum, to be applied, independently of the local District authorities, to the education of colored children, and report by bill.

The House passed the bill heretofore offered by Ward, denouncing polygamy.

SENATE.

Morgan presented a Memorial from the New York Chamber of Commerce, asking legislation to protect northern creditors from the operations of Southern statues of limitation; referred to the Judiciary Committee.

GENERAL NEWS.

New York, Jan. 8.

It is stated that George Bancroft the Historian, has been invited to deliver a Congressional eulogy on President Lincoln at noon on Saturday.

The Representatives of the Shawnees, Sacs, Foxes and Iowas were received by the President in the lobby room of the Executive Mansion to-day. They called, they said, on their great father to pay their respects and to give assurances of loyalty and good feeling. The President assured them that the government would act with them in good faith, and would carry out all its obligations.

A special to the World says, among the names mentiond in connection with the vacant Supreme Judgeship, are Newall, Houston, Judge Trigg of Tennessee, and Judge Sharkey; the chances seemingly favor the first named.

The soldiers' and sailors' national convention is called to meet at Washington on the 22nd, for the purpose of urging Congress to pass measures relating to the equalization of bounties.

The Floyd acceptance case came up in court to-day. The amount of the claims involved is over three-fourths of a million. The question is, whether the government is legally liable for the amount of these acceptances when the rebel postmaster Reagan kept $60,000 in bills of exchange on Rothschild, which were found on his person, drawn by Trenholm of the Treasury. These were sent to our Consular agent in London for collection, and they have been recently returned with endorsement by the house of the Rothschilds, there being no funds to meet them. It is alleged by persons who know, that there were plenty of funds when the bills were drawn, but by some means they have been spirited away.

Gen. Grant sends three inspecting officers on tours to distant military departments this week, to see if a further reduction of forces and expenses can be made.

The volunteer medical staff has been reduced since May last from 240 to about 50.

The list of the rightful claimants for the reward offered for the capture of the conspirators has been made out and was sent to the War Department on Saturday evening.

Chicago, Jan. 8.

Gen. Sweeny has been dismissed the service for absence without leave. He has been for some time acting as Secretary of War in the Fenian organization.

New York, Jan. 8.

The World's special says Raymond has introduced a bill for the appointment of a commission to purchase and erect a post office in the City of New York. Stevens has introduced a bill to authorize the building of a military railroad between New York and Washington. A similar bill has been introduced by Garfield. Both have been referred to a select committee.

New York, Jan. 8.

The Tribune's Washington special says, Gen. R. Clay Crawford is reported to be at Brownsville, Texas, with the chief of his staff, Col. A. F. Reed, raising an American division for Mexico. He is a citizen of Tennessee.

The Post's Washington special says, the Congressional joint committee on reconstruction has agreed not to divulge any of its proceedings for the present.

President Johnson expressed himself decidedly, to a member of Congress today, in favor of the immediate admission of the Tennessee Delegation.

Maj. Gen. J. D. Cox was inaugurated Governor of Ohio, at Columbus to-day.

A letter from Paris says, John Slidell is living in obscurity. His family goes very little into society. Mason is in London. Thompson and Benjamin are also there. Breckenridge is shortly expected from Canada, with his family. Maj. Hays, formerly agent for purchase in the Confederacy, is in Paris. Mrs Gwynn and daughter are now residing in London.

A Richmond Letter says that the Adj General of Virginia reports that he has issued commissions to officers in 33 counties for the enrollment of Militia, and only one of the counties had reported favorably, all others refusing to enroll volunteers.

Gov. Pierpont had a conference with the Secretary of the Treasury recently; the latter said he had no power to postpone the collection of taxes, though he has directed that no sales be made at present, by the tax commissioners, for their non-payment.

Washington, Jan 13.

Dr. Reinhold Folger, late assistant register of the U. S Treasury, died yesterday.

New York, Jan. 13.

A new counterfeit of the 50 cent fractional currency has been discovered.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 13.

Gov. Curtin is expected to leave Havana on the 25th, for New York; his health has steadily improved, the alarming symptoms have entirely disappeared, and although not fully restored to health, he is constrained by a sense of duty to return home.

The Herald's Washington special says, that General Milford, having turned over to the Commissary General of prisoners, such monies as he succeeded in recovering from the rebel prison keepers, out of the funds sends to our soldiers in captivity, and appropriated by former parties, the same is now ready for distribution, and all applications in this regard may be sent forthwith to General Hitchcock. As the amount secured, falls short of the aggregate of the sums known to have been thus applied, it is proposed to make a pro rata division among all who can reasonably substantiate losses of the above description.

New York, Jan. 13.

The Commercial's Washington special says, a probably unsuccessful appeal has been made to the War Department for the restoration of Gen. Sweeny, Fenian Commander in-chief, to his position in the regular service. General Grant, under orders from the President, is withdrawing all troops from the southern states, except garrisons of United States Forts at important points. Official dispatches from United States agents abroad, were received, at the State Department by last steamer from Europe, are favorable to American interests. The plans for the extension of European influence on our continent have received a death blow by the restoration of the Union. It is expected the Mexican difficulty will be solved by the withdrawal of the French troops, of which there are increasing indications. There are grounds for believing that the State Department at Washington, and the French Government, have an understanding upon the subject which is said to date previous to the termination of the civil war. The Judges of the Supreme Court are in consultation to day on the constitutionality of the test oath, about which there is a difference of opinion. It is certain that Secretary McCulloch's finance bill will be amended for its passage.

New York, Jan 3.

The Post says, some of the Fenians of this city profess to believe Stephens' letter is a forgery, and that it was designed to overthrow the opposition to O.Mahony before the truth could be known.

New York, Jan. 13.

The Commercial special says, the stock market showes a slight recovery from yesterday, the shipment of specie to day amounts to $363,260, viz. $212 260 per Herman, and 154 000 per City of London total shipment from New York will be about 590,000. Money is very abundant and idle. Balances are hawked round the street at 5 per cent. The prevailing rate to brokers, however is still 6 per cent. Discount is active on prime bills, at 6 per cent, but lower grades are still shunned by buyers. Foreign exchange nominal; transactions, to-wards the close of business yesterday, were large at 107 6 8 a 109 for sterling, which are the quotations this morning.

The obsequies of the late Robert B. Minturn took place in Brooklyn to-day.

New York, Jan. 13.

Court has denied motion to strike out justifying parts of the answer in case by Joseph A. Madox against Secretary of War, Stanton. Gold was quoted this p m. at 139⅞. Within the last three days twelve pickpockets have been arrested on the Erie R. R. The examination of Robt. Martin, alledged confederate of Kennedy, was before the U. S. Court today. In the case of the mercantile Bank against Windsor the court granted a motion to make supplimentary answer, setting up the fact that Windsor was arrested on an execution in England as a discharge from the Department.

UNDER the caption "Hell Boiling Again," the Salt Lake Telegraph refers to the notice the late treasonable balderdash uttered by the old He-saints of Utah has attracted from the people of the United States. Probably, the hard language of the Telegraph will deter the said people from their purpose. If so, it would be bad for the human race. Black Hawke, Col., Journal, 3d inst.

IRWIN'S BENEFIT, the big thing to-night at the Academy of Music.

BIRTH.—In Salt Lake City, Jan 13th, the wife of Lieut. J. Austin, of a daughter.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC, TO-NIGHT.—Mr. Selden M. Irwin's Benefit will come off at this house to-night. See programmes.

THE select soiree at Mr. Savage's Eureka Hall, to-morrow night, is going to be a nice affair, as much preparation is making by the management to have it such.

THE Paymaster arrived here from the west, on Saturday last, and is now "disgorging" the greenbacks to the Michigan Volunteers and "any other man."

THE price of admission for brokers in the new stock exchange, New York, is three thousand dollars, and for a broker's clerk one half that amount. They can afford it.

"SILENT CONTEMPT" has been suggested as the treatment for some scurrilous quibs in that obscene sheet—our daily cotemporary of Saturday and Sunday morning.

MR. IRWIN'S BENEFIT, to-night, will embrace an endless variety of novelties, among which is Master Bobby McGinley, the infant violinist and champion jig-dancer.

TERPSICHOREAN.—There were three or four dancing soriees in this situated burg last Friday evening, and all of 'em well attended by "fair ladies and brave men." That at Independence Hall was quite a handsome, yea a high-toned success.

WANTED!—Agents to canvas for Mackenzie's Great 10,000 Family Receipt Book, just out. Send for circular and terms to T. Ellwood Zell, publisher, Nos. 17 and 19, South Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa. 1t

THE EMPIRE BAKERY, Restaurant and Cracker manufactory, by Riethman & Co., next to Ransohoff & Co's. Main street, is the place to go and get your square meals, fine bread, superior crackers, &c. See advertisement in this paper, and give Messrs. Reithman & Co. a call, often and all the time.

CALIFORNIA FATNESS.—The San Francisco Morning Call says: "Nothing is so well calculated to impress upon the mind of the beholder the extreme fatness of California land, the fecund properties of its climate, and the fruitfulness of its soil, as a visit to the San Francisco markets at the present time."

THE actresses are unusually prosperous just now. Heron received for her share at the New Orleans Varieties lately for twelve performances, $2,400; for two weeks in Mobile, 1,000, and for one week in Memphis, 1,663.60. Miss Charlotte Thompson was handed nearly three thousand dollars for twelve performances. Maggie Mitchell is rich and so are nearly all the other star actresses. The drama thrives.

A Montana correspondent writes that "the Blackfoot country is both rich and extensive—new discoveries being made every day. The population is very large, mostly from the East. Those from the East are called 'Pilgrims' and 'Tender Feet.' Californians are called 'Other Sides' and 'California Horse Thieves.'"

ARRESTED.—A man named Duffy was arrested by the Captain of Police from Virginia, Montana, at the O. S. office, on Saturday afternoon. It was said that charges of a serious character were the cause. There was a shot or two, and tremendous sensation, over the arrest, as the crowd outside exhibited. Don't know result as yet, nor can we, by inquiry, learn.

IRWIN, A MICHIGANDER.—The Paymaster having come, and paid off the Michigan Vols. at Camp, has not been lost sight of by Sel. Irwin, the soldiers' favorite. Sel. says he's a Michigander himself—having been born in Detroit!—Our readers at Camp will please consider the fact, and give their Wolverine friend the fullest representation from that State they can, this evening at his Benefit!

PUGNACIOUS.—A number of vapory individuals have been blowing round about their anxiety to whip all creation or "some other man"—it is suggested to send them round to Livingston's Corral. That slight announcement "cooled off a few" once before.

That once before—was when the destroying angels, at the behest of your master, regaled the inhabitants of Salt Lake with a dead gentile or apostate for breakfast every morning. Utah is slightly regenerated, and Othello's occupation's gone. Notwithstanding, you regret that the days of shedding of blood, for the remission of sin is past. You will have to submit to the present improved order of affairs in Utah. We recommend you to keep your blood hounds chained.

CAPTAIN J. ROSS BROWNE, who was recently ordered to the service in one of the Arizona Volunteers, has received orders to report for duty in San Francisco, instead of Arizona, as at first directed.

IMMENSE STAGE ENTERPRISE.—The Kansas City Journal of Commerce announces that there is in contemplation in that city the starting of a stage and express company to carrry freight and passengers and the mails from that point to New Mexico, Arizona, Salt Lake, Colorado and other places. It further adds that the enterprise is in opposition to the Butterfield Stage and Express Company, and upon a larger scale, having a capital of over $3,000,000. It proposes to absorb the stage line at present starting from that city, use its road (the Santa Fe), and succeed it in its franchises.

PATENT BLASTING OIL.—A pamphlet is received of "Nobel's Patent Blasting Oil," (Nitro glycerine,) and setting forth the chief advantages, properties and testimonials, by Bandmann, Nielson & Co., sole agents for California, 210 Front street, San Francisco. Nitro glycerine and its enormous power, have been known to chemists for some years past, but its practical use has been thought unpracticable until within a few short years. At present this agent is supplanting gunpowder in the mines of Europe. More on this subject soon, through our advertising columns.

"THE POORMAN LODE," in the Boise basin, yielded, just before litigation stopped the work, as follows: "One lot of ninety-five tons gave $2,200 per ton; and another lot of sixteen tons gave a much larger yield—the exact result was not given. One hundred and eleven tons gave an average of $2,200 per ton. Admitting the above quantity of rock was crushed and yielded an average of $2,200 per ton—the lowest sum reported—then the snug little matter of $488,400 was realized."

THANKS to Hon. B. F. Lumkin, Territorial Auditor, Boise city, Idaho, for a copy of his second annual report, as submitted to the Legislative Assembly of Idaho, on the 4th ult. It is, unlike other documents down here, not a blind compend of general items, but a comprehensive statement of the assessments, tax collections, expenditures &c. of each county of that thriving Territory. The assessed value of property within that territory for 1864 is given at three million six hundred and ninety-eight thousand dollars, on which the territorial tax (of 8 mills on the dollar) was a little over twenty-nine and a half thousand dollars. Valuation for 1865 is given at five million, one hundred and eighty-four thousand, on which the territorial tax (7 mills on the dollar) was thirty-six thousand three hundred dollars.

THE Tabernacle was crowded yesterday afternoon to its utmost capacity.—The speaker, (whose name we did not learn) during the course of his fanatical harangue—which was composed without regard to grammatical rules, and interspersed with many queer expressions which we never before heard from the pulpit, but have heard mentioned in connection with "backwoods sermons"—expressed himself as follows:

"When I hear a man railing against Mormonism, I think he ought to be tapped for the shallows."

That surgical operation would never help you, "brother"" for, apparently you are in the last stage of that "upper story" disease, to judge from the drift of the concluding sentence of your "twaddle," evidently alluding to the late Congressional proceedings in reference to Polygamy, as follows:

"We want to obey every law, and don't want to infringe on any law, but when a law is made which hedges up the way of God, do you think we are going to cry out, we want no more wives? I think not! I think not! (Tremendous chorus of h'amens.) No! The women want husbands, and we want more wives, and must have them! (Another volley of h'amens, and hearty laughter!)

Wonder if "Ward's denouncing resolution" wasn't what was the matter with those sere satellites of the old Seer? It is about time they felt the indignation of an insulted people. Their pest-house of unblushing immoralities and unpunished crimes will be "hedged in," perhaps before they will have time to hobble after many more, either in marriage or in incest. Get "tapped" of the unclean thing, ere it be too late, "brother"——!

Rush Valley Correspondence.

STOCKTON, RUSH VALLEY, U. T., Jan. 12th 1866.

Dear Vedette:—Under the inclemencies of the cold and snowy weather that we are "blest with," out here in Rush, I take the advantage of the fireside to let the public know, outside of Rush Valley, that we still exist—by faith—hoping that the snow will leave us and that some of our New York speculators will come to our relief, and give their greenbacks a chance in our silver mines. The silver is here, and all that is wanted is capitalists to start the ball rolling. The Dahlgreen Company is sinking a shaft on the Silver King; the mineral looks well, and is growing richer the deeper they go down. But progress is slow, owing to the weather. The Delmont Company is also sinking a shaft on their lode. This lode is the Second Comstock; it is the best indication of silver that I have seen in the Rush Valley mines. The out-croppings are as good as I ever saw in the State of Nevada, or any other Silver mines. This lode is claimed by the discharged soldiers of General Connor's Command, and from the appearance of them, they know how to mine; they are all old California miners. More anon.

ALL SORTS OF ITEMS.

"Just as the bee collects her sweets,
From every shrub and flower she meets,
What from many a source we drew
We give, tho' not the whole as new."

Trusting in God.

There is no thought so sweet as this—That He
Who brought us forth without our will or thought
Still holds us in the hollow of his hand.
And will direct us in all time to come—
The incomprehensible future—the Infinite—
From whence we came—from Him an emanation.
Thus in the safe protection of His care
We rest—content. And this is happiness,
For which the world has striven and wise men sought,
And few have found, too eager for the prize,
Refusing the glittering, the toy that hold
The treasure.

Brigham Young's motto—quick returns and small prophets.

To give pain is the despotism, to make happy the true empire of beauty.

Unrighteous gain has destroyed millions, but has never made one man permanently prosperous and happy.

The "fastest" and "slowest" authors of the seventeenth century were Swift and Crabbe.

Sydney Smith said that "the Court of Chancery was like a boa-constrictor, which swallowed up the estates of English gentlemen in haste, and digested them at leisure."

It is said that Lord Brougham's nose and chin kiss very affectionately. It were well if they would so shut his mouth in as to keep it from talking.

AN exchange says: "If you would keep your children in health, give them plenty of fresh air." This is all well enough; but, now-a-days children put on so many airs of their own, that it is almost impossible to give them a fresh one every day.

The proprietor of a town site in Wisconsin, advertises his lots for sale in this wise: "The town of ———, and surrounding country, is the most beautiful which nature ever made. The scenery is celestial—divine; also, two wagons to lesl, and a yoke of steers."
